BUILDING INSP. REPORT

Larry Gurssling informed the Board that he has placed a stop-work order on the fence that Dr. Garg is erecting as it is not being installed by Code and without a permit. Work is progressing on Ward Bowens property. Mr. Gurssling was called to a fire that resulted in no damage or injuries. Larry visited Wimpy's Garage and spoke with the property owner, Ray Klein, regarding the removal of cars, tires and an old boat that has been crushed by a fallen tree. Mr. Klein gave a commitment to get the work done.

HIGHWAY SUPT. REPORT

Superintendent Goodwin gave an update on the storm. He stated that the highway clocked 4,598 miles plowing and salting at a cost of approximately $42,537.00 in labor. The Board commended the Highway employees on a job well done.
