HISTORICAL MOMENT

Leanna Hale wished to thank all who attended the Inaugural Triangle Tract meeting held at the Whitehall Mansion on October 13. It was very well attended. The society consists of 5 towns including Clarkson, Hamlin, Sweden, Bergen and LeRoy. Leanna passed around an 1829 map of Monroe County, displaying Clarkson stretching all the way to Lake Ontario, as Hamlin was not formed yet. She advised that all information can be found on their Facebook page-Triangle Tract Society. Leanna mentioned upcoming events in each town, such as the Clarkson Historical Society has a talk on Milo Starks, the Civil War soldier, on December 3. The Morgan Manning House will have Candlelight Christmas on December 6 and Hamlin North Star History Center has their Open House November 24. LeRoy has the LeRoy Fest December 7th and on December 31 will be the First Night Celebration. The society plans to meet twice a year with the next meeting to be held in June at the cemetery in LeRoy. / Cursive writing contest information will be available in December.

OPEN FORUM

Martha Clasquin, 34 Sherwood Drive, would like to thank Robert Viscardi, Highway Superintendent and his crew for planting the oak tree at Kimball Park, in dedication to longtime resident Lorna Stinebiser. Lorna was the treasurer of The Clarkson Democratic Committee. Martha gave special thanks to Supervisor Liotta as she learned Ursula had been a mentor and guide for Lorna as she became the Clarkson Elections Coordinator. / Martha mentioned her appreciation for this small-town community and discussed the challenges we face, specifically, food scarcity. She wished to thank Town Clerk Susan Henshaw for organizing Clarkson's Holiday Food Drive. The food donated is shared widespread to families in need, throughout Brockport, Clarkson and Hamlin. / Martha expressed concerns regarding the removal of snow on the sidewalks and crosswalks within Wellington Woods. Superintendent Viscardi stated that area is privately owned, therefore the highway department does not tend to that location. / Martha expressed her sincere thanks for all the work town employees do on a day-to-day basis.

Joe Wielgosz, 10 Tearose Meadow Lane, expressed concern to Superintendent Viscardi, regarding the transition of sidewalk in front of his home. He mentioned stones were found in his lawn and left behind on the sidewalk. He stated the final product is unsafe. He was deeply upset that he had not heard back from highway in a timely fashion. He passed around some pictures of the sidewalk in front of his home, and a similar sidewalk in the Village of Brockport, in comparison. Superintendent Viscardi mentioned he had stopped by his residence after the phone call days later, but no one was home. He apologized for the stones that remained onsite. He felt the adjustment to the sidewalk is much better. He advised them to have a grinder on the machine that is used for this particular job. He mentioned he will revisit the area and do the best possible to smooth out the sidewalk to a safer transition. Superintendent Viscardi once again apologized to Mr. Wielgosz. Supervisor Liotta advised that we try to respond to resident concerns timely and she apologized as well for lack of contact. However, resident follow up phone calls should be placed if concerns are not met.
