Old Business:

L. Hale- sign missing at the “Houston Tavern.” Discussion was had about an email that was sent from Catskill Castings with a cost of $1,275.00 plus $60 shipping. Kevin M. shared that he spoke with the owners of the tavern, and they will reach out to see about getting it replaced. He has a follow up call in to them and left a message. He is waiting to hear back from them.

Old Business:

Follow up on the Whitehall Clock/Bell Tower discussion from last month (3845 Lake Rd.). Property owners are not qualified for federal, state grants because it is not a residential property. Working on checking other routes for the property owners to pursue. Dan Maier will reach out to the Smithsonian about it as well due to the historical significance of the clock in the tower. Kevin M. will follow up with previous owner of the property. Discussion about how the Baptist Church in Brockport had their clock replaced in the past, and reaching out to them for possible further avenues to recommend to the Whitehall property owners. Dan M. is going to investigate some other avenues as well.
